MEMORANDUM

NOTE:

All the instructions included in this memo are taken from the examination Guideline 2009.

SECTION A: COMPREHENSION

Marking memorandum/marking the comprehension :

For HL and FAL candidates, incorrect spelling in one-word answers should be marked wrong.

- Incorrect spelling and language errors in longer responses should not be penalised because the focus is on understanding.
- For open-ended questions, no marks should be awarded for YES/NO/ or I AGREE/I DISAGREE. The reason/ substantiation/motivation is what should be considered.
- For TRUE/FALSE or FACT/OPINION questions, the mark should be split, i.e. award 1 mark for TRUE/FALSE or FACT/OPINION and a mark for the reason/substantiation/ motivation/quotation.
- For questions which require quotations from the text, do not penalise candidates for omitting the quotation marks.
- When one-word answers are required and the candidate gives a whole sentence, mark correct provided that the correct word is underlined/highlighted.
- When two/three facts/points are required and a range is given, mark only the first two/three.

- If a candidate uses words from another language other than the one being examined, disregard those words, and if the answer still makes sense, do not penalise. However, if a word from another language is used in a text and required in an answer, this will be acceptable.
- Accept dialectal variations.
- For multiple-choice questions, accept BOTH the letter corresponding with the correct answer AND the answer written out in full.

QUESTION 1

1. Lezerine comes from a poor✓, rural background✓, but she has a loving and supportive mother✓. Do NOT give marks for Jane Furse or Polokwane. The learners MUST use their own words. Any TWO points. (2)
- 2.1 Lezerine joined loveLife and then enrolled at a Youth Academy. (2)
- 2.2 She did not have the money to pay for further study. (1)
- 3.1 Lezerine phoned her mother. (1)
- 3.2 She admires and loves her mother and wanted to share the news with her first – or similar answer. Do NOT accept a quote about her mother's 'staying strong'. (1)
4. Lezerine wanted to own her own business and create employment for other people. (2)
5. True ✓. The passage says "search the job market" ✓ and this means to look for a job. (2)
6. In 2008, Lezerine was named one of the Mail&Guardian's Top 200 Achievers.✓ In March this year, she won the Black Business Quarterly (BBQ) Award (½ m) in the Government category (½ m). (2)
7. The learner must make TWO intelligent points. Be strict.
Example: She is not selfish and wants to empower other young people. (2)
8. The learner's answer must show that he/she understands smart and savvy and explain why she is called this.
smart = clever savvy = knowledgeable
THREE REASONS, 1 mark each, e.g., she has achieved well at a youth academy, she has her own business, she takes on new projects, she has entrepreneurial insight. (3)
9. The title emphasises both Lezerine's intellect/intelligence ✓ (Brain) and her business acumen ✓ (business). The title also uses alliteration. ✓ Any TWO points. (2)
10. NO MARKS FOR YES/NO. Marks for the reasons given. The learner must make TWO intelligent points, e.g., The article is intended to inspire young people and so will reach the target audience because Uncut is directed at the youth. The article fits into the government's propaganda about 'role models' and so fulfils the requirements of the DoE. (2)

11. NO MARKS FOR YES/NO. Marks for the reasons given. The learners can say they have, indeed, been inspired by her, or they can say 'so what?' – just because she has been successful does not mean everyone will be. (3) [24]

QUESTION 2

12. C
13. D
14. withdrawn
15. The learner must explain the following in his/her OWN words:
"Look in the mirror and see a person worthy of your respect and admiration. The capable person looking back at you should be someone you enjoy spending time with and would like to get to know better. Why? Because you're worth it!"

Suggestion:

The writer advises the readers to look carefully at themselves and believe that they are people whom other people can think a lot of. They must love themselves and be comfortable with themselves. They must believe that they are valuable.

The learners should see the three main points. (3)

SECTION B: SUMMARY

QUESTION 3

- Heading/title: candidates should not be required to provide a heading/title.
- Candidates should be required to provide a summary in their own sentences.
- The passage should not come from the comprehension text.
- Candidates may be required to summarise in point OR paragraph form.

Marking memorandum/marking the summary:

- Candidates must present the summary in the required format. Summaries presented in the incorrect format will not be assessed.
- Award marks only for those points that are presented in full sentences.
- Planning/drafts must be clearly indicated. If not, mark the first summary presented.

- Candidates must indicate the word count correctly.
- For FAL, award marks as follows:
 - o 7 marks for 7 points
 - o 3 marks for language
- Penalties:
 - For summaries that are too long, read only up to 5 words beyond the required length and ignore the rest of the answer.
 - Summaries that are short but contain all the required main points should not be penalised.
 - Language errors (grammar, spelling, punctuation): deduct from the 3 marks for language as follows:

0-4 errors – no penalty

5-10 errors – subtract 1 mark

11-15 errors – subtract 2 marks

16 errors or more – subtract 3 marks.

- For direct quotations of whole sentences, penalise as follows from the total mark awarded for the points and language usage:

1-3 whole sentences quoted: no penalty

4-5 whole sentences quoted: deduct 1 mark

6-7 whole sentences quoted: deduct 2 marks

- Subtract 1 mark from the total marks awarded for the points and language usage for not indicating the word count, or for an incorrect word count.

NOTE: Abbreviations should not be used but should they appear in the summary, they must be counted as the number of words that they represent.

The following points form the answer to the question.

Quotation	Look for these core ideas – own words
We all know it's important to save for a rainy day. And with the current economic crisis - characterised by job losses, interest rate inflation and rising food prices – saving for the future has become more important than ever before. But saving isn't just about putting money aside for tough times and emergencies.	Put aside money for emergencies and difficult times so that you save money for the future.

It's also about peace of mind and becoming more self-reliant.	Do not rely on credit or government grants.
Start by identifying your "needs" and "wants", explains Lwanga-Nanzir.	Identify needs and wants.
Once you've made a list of what you need to live versus those less important purchases, you'll be better prepared to stick to a budget	Establish and stick to a budget.
and prioritise your spending.	Decide on what to buy according to their importance or urgency
Put aside a fixed percentage of your earnings every month – whatever you think you can afford but it must be the same amount and every month.	Save a fixed percentage of your income every month.
Finally, don't borrow from your friends.	Do not borrow from your friends.
