Teacher instruction:
Say the rhyme "Mother Duck went out one day". Ask learners to 'read' the story.
Count the ducklings on each line and let learners write the number in the block.
Then ask them how Mother Duck felt.
This is a visual discrimination and counting exercise.

How do you feel?

