

Teacher instruction:

Learners talk about the ways in which their grandparents help or have helped them.
They draw a picture of something special they want to do for their grandparents to show their appreciation.
This a visual discrimination exercise.

Teacher instruction:

Learners talk about the way in which things change.
They draw pictures of what they observed during baking time as the bread was left to rise.
Remember to talk about the smell and feel of the bread before, during and after it was baked.
This is a sensory activity and learners' observation skills are exercised.

Teacher instruction:

Ask learners to 'read' each picture.
Then ask them to say what sound each picture begins with.
Next let them place a button on each picture that begins with an 'h' sound.
This is an auditory analysis and discrimination exercise.
