1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 BACKGROUND

Each learner in South Africa should develop solid foundations for further learning. With this goal in mind and in order to focus specifically on Literacy and Numeracy, the Minister of Education announced in the Government Gazette of 14 March 2008 (No. 30880) that the national Department of Education would launch the “Foundations for Learning” campaign in all South African schools.

It is a four-year campaign to create a national focus on improving learner performance in reading, writing and numeracy. By 2011 every learner should demonstrate age appropriate levels of Literacy and Numeracy. The Minister called on all South Africans to join hands with the DoE to improve learning outcomes.

The Foundations for Learning Assessment Framework which was distributed to all schools during 2008 contained “milestones” for each grade. These milestones explain the content embedded in the Learning Outcomes and Assessment Standards of the NCS, and indicate the expected level of achievement of learners at the end of each term. This document contains Lesson Plans based on the milestones.

How do these Lesson Plans link to the Curriculum and the Foundations for Learning Campaign?

These Lesson Plans have been developed using:

- the NCS Learning Outcomes and Assessment Standards as the starting point
- the Milestones and
- Government Gazette 30880 of 14 March 2008, which outlines the Foundations for Learning Campaign, details the minimum expectations for the teaching of Literacy and Numeracy (Languages and Mathematics) as well as providing timetabling and resourcing suggestions.

The following table provides an example of how these three documents are linked for Grade 4 - 6 Literacy (Home Language):

How do I use the time allocated for Language?

The Government Gazette No 30880 provides the following breakdown of the formal teaching allocations for Mathematics and Language in the Intermediate Phase per day:

Grade	Daily total for Mathematics	Daily total for Language	Home Language (3 days per week)	First Additional Literacy (2 days per week)	Allowance should be made for reading for enjoyment for 30 minutes per day
Grade 4	1 hour	1 hour 30 minutes	1 hour 30 minutes	1 hour 30 minutes
Grade 5	1 hour	1 hour 30 minutes	1 hour 30 minutes	1 hour 30 minutes
Grade 6	1 hour	1 hour 30 minutes	1 hour 30 minutes	1 hour 30 minutes

It is suggested that three days per week should be spent on Home language and two days on First Additional Language.

How, then can these lesson plans help teachers?
What do they provide?

These Lesson Plans are intended to assist teachers to pace their teaching, give them guidance when planning their assessment tasks and provide suggestions to enrich teaching practice. If you follow these lessons systematically you will cover the curriculum and reach the milestones for Grades 4 - 6.

However they are not intended to be prescriptive and teachers are not expected to abandon good practice in order to follow the plans blindly.

The Plans provide:

- an overview of the term, together with an Assessment Overview, broken into weekly units. The overview covers 10 weeks of work and provides a useful termly checklist. (You might want to compare this with your Phase Learning programme and Work Schedule and ask yourself questions such as: Does your Work Schedule include similar content? Do you reach approximately the same point at the end of each term? How does this compare to your Assessment Plan?) .
- an overview for each week This helps you to see the content included in the week’s lesson plans, to see how it is paced and to make use of specific Lesson Plans. Learning Outcomes and Assessment Standards have been included. The latter have been numbered as AS 1, 2, 3 etc. No sub-bullets are indicated.
- individual lesson plans for each week There are 10 weekly Lesson Plans for each term, covering three days’ work each. Each week’s Plan provides:
 - o one oral lesson (30 mins)
 - o three literacy hour lessons (1 hour each)
 - o shared reading and writing
 - o word and sentence level work
 - o group, guided and independent reading/writing
 - o two writing lessons (30 mins each)
- suggestions for the Assessment Tasks for each term are shown at the end of Week 6 (Assessment Task 1) and Week 10 (Assessment Task 2).

1.2 ADAPTING THE LESSON PLANS

Remember: every class and learner is unique. There can be no “one size fits all”. Learners progress at different speeds and learn in different ways and you, as the class teacher, are best able to pace your teaching to the needs of your learners. You can introduce new material in another order as long as you reach all the specified milestones for Intermediate Phase.

How do teachers marry the activities in the Learner’s Books and their own material with these Lesson Plans? Do the Lesson Plans replace the Learner’s Books and Teacher’s Guides?

These Lesson Plans should be used together with approved Teacher's Guides, Learner's Books and Reading Books as well as other resources. They are not intended to replace the Teacher's Guides and Learner's Books or the material you have developed yourself. The Lesson Plans do not provide actual worksheets, workcards or reading material for learners:

Approved Teacher's Guides should pace the work for the year so that all the Learning Outcomes and Assessment Standards are covered. There will therefore be similarities between the Teacher's Guides and Learner's Books and these Lesson Plans. However the order of content may be presented somewhat differently so you will need to compare and marry the content. Remember that ultimately you are the decision maker.

1.3 LITERACY (HOME LANGUAGE)

With these Lesson Plans we would like to encourage you to guide your learners on the exciting road to literacy by taking them on a journey through well-chosen fiction and non-fiction texts. In the Foundation Phase the focus was on “learning to read”. Now, in the Intermediate Phase, it is on “reading to learn”.

Scaffolding is one of the most important aspects supporting learners in this journey of becoming skilled and functional readers. The idea of scaffolding learners originated with Vygotsky, a famous educational theorist. When builders build a high building, they put up a series of frameworks and structures to support them while working at higher levels. These structures are known as “scaffolding”. Once the building is completed and can stand on its own, the builders don't need the scaffolding anymore and they remove it.

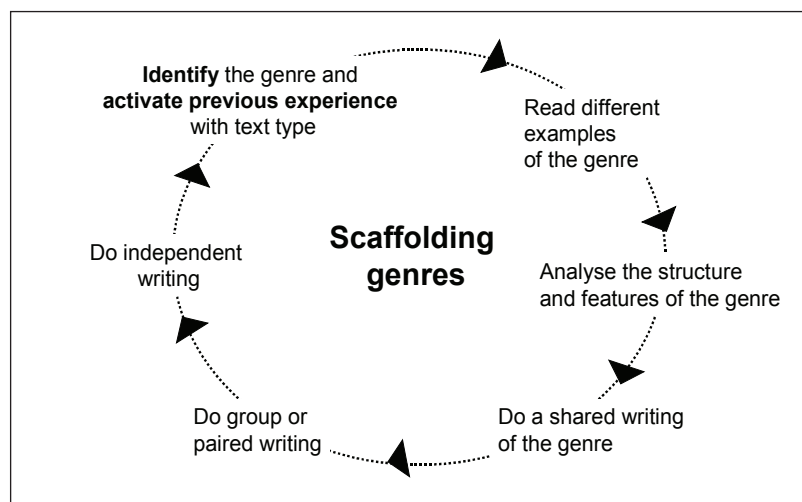

In learning, it is teacher support that scaffolds the learner in the development of skills. When a task is difficult, the learners may need full teacher support. As the learner gains skills and knowledge he or she can become more independent and share the task with the teacher. Once the learner can do the task independently without teacher help, the teacher can remove the scaffold.

In these Lesson Plans scaffolding is provided by varying the amount of teacher's support, the kind of grouping and the teaching strategy. Every time you tackle a new text or a new genre, it may be necessary to go through this scaffolding process. Literacy development happens in a spiral with learners developing and practising skills in new and more complex contexts.

We have often suggested in the Lesson Plans that you read texts to your learners or do activities with your learners. Doing activities as whole class work, group work, pair work and individual work is an attempt to scaffold learners in this way. These are suggestions. How you decide to group your learners and how much support you think they need, depends on your own context.

During the year learners should be introduced to a number of different genres (types of texts), including stories, poetry, dialogues, letters, plays, newspaper reports, advertisements, menus, different kinds of environmental print, information texts, maps, cartoons, sports reports, weather reports, movie and TV programmes and others. They need to learn to read these genres, understand how the language structures and conventions work in them and then write examples of their own.

It is important that we scaffold learners from being able to read these genres to being able to write them as well. Here are some simple steps we can follow to scaffold this process.

In the Lesson Plans we also scaffold the activities themselves. This means that activities are ordered in such a way that each activity builds on the one before. For example, whenever there are individual writing activities, these are preceded by texts and discussions of the topic as well as related language, grammar, word and sentence level work and spelling activities.

1.3.1 Shared Reading and Writing (whole-class)

In a shared reading lesson during the Foundation Phase the teacher reads with the class or a group, using a large book that has big print. In the Intermediate Phase this can also be done by providing each learner with a copy of the text or projecting the text on an OHP.

The teacher introduces and models reading the text and then re-reads the text with the learners reading along with the teacher. All language and literacy development happens within these contexts and from these texts. During a shared reading session the teacher should focus on comprehension, word-building and spelling patterns, punctuation, the layout and purpose of the text and the structure and organisation of sentences. Teachers should also use this text when teaching grammar. Because teachers are supporting reading, learners can work with texts that are beyond their independent reading levels. This is particularly valuable for less able readers who gain access to texts of greater richness and complexity than they would otherwise be able to read. This builds confidence and teaches more advanced skills, which feed into other independent reading.

Shared writing (modelled writing) provides many opportunities for teachers to model the writing process. The teacher, in collaboration with the class, writes a text by using a writing frame. The teacher may also model the writing cycle process and support the learners in composing their own texts as well as working with sentences, words, punctuation, etc.

1.3.2 Group, Guided Reading

Learners need to read texts that suit their level of competence (not too simple/not too difficult). They are not ready to read the same texts at the same time. This is where group reading comes in. Learners can be grouped according to their reading ability, into 3 - 4 groups, with the teacher working with each group at least once a week. In the Lesson Plans we make provision for three same-ability groups.

Group reading does not require any special readers. Although there are group reading schemes on the market, a variety of different readers can be used, even a single, longer reader.

In guided reading, the teacher supports reading by:

- o supporting learners in their attempts to read for meaning
- o encouraging and modeling reading strategies
- o drawing attention to cues, in the context or illustrations
- o suggesting and facilitating word attack strategies
- o providing different ways for them to practise their reading skills.

In guided reading, the teacher assesses reading by:

- o observing how the learners read
- o determining where and how they use clues and strategies
- o determining learners' knowledge, understanding, skills, values and attitudes
- o using their assessment to plan future support and practice.

In guided reading, the teacher uses after-reading activities to:

- o establish deeper understanding and let learners respond to the text
- o explore the text and illustrations further

- o develop skills in a now familiar context
- o analyse genre, theme, characters, plot, mood, context, etc.

1.3.3 Independent Reading

Providing opportunities for learners to read books on their own also develops fluency, provided that the books are easy enough for the learners to read without help. Short books with predictable text and colourful illustrations are ideal. Some teachers like to give learners individual reading to do at home – to re-read the group reading book, read simple, ‘fun’ books or other photocopied texts they’ve created. This extra reading practice, done on a regular basis every day, plays an important role in learning to read. (see the paragraph on Homework)

1.3.4 Paired Reading

Another way of giving learners reading practice is to have learners read in pairs, using either similar or mixed reading levels. They can reread their class or group readers, simple ‘fun’ books or supplementary readers. This paired reading can take place at any time, anywhere, as a class reading activity (learners can sit in pairs inside or outside the classroom to read together or take turns to read), or while other learners are busy doing other work eg two learners who have completed their tasks can read together.

1.3.5 Reading aloud by the teacher

A vital component of a balanced reading programme is the reading aloud (story-time) by the teacher. This develops a whole range of language skills (including those of reading) in a meaningful context and is at the heart of a balanced programme for literacy. Through reading aloud teachers can create in learners a love of reading and a passion for stories.

Independent or paired reading, as well as reading aloud, by the teacher are all very suitable for the time spent on Reading for Enjoyment.

What do the rest of the class do during Group Reading time?

Working with Guided Reading groups will take at least half an hour of literacy time every day. Learners need to be involved in either independent writing or reading activities. These activities need to be such that learners both know what they have to do and can do it without interrupting the teacher, asking for help. Training learners to get on with work on their own takes considerable time and patience. The learners need to know which tasks they have to do and, possibly, the order in which they have to complete them. The level of difficulty of the tasks should be such that they don’t need help from you. If you think your learners will battle with a particular task – wait until you have time to help them or your guided reading sessions will be continually interrupted.

1.3.6 Spelling, grammar and word and sentence level work

This time during literacy hour should be used to cover spelling and vocabulary work and the teaching of grammar and punctuation. Sentence level work should be explored in the context of shared reading and writing.

It is important to have a list of spelling rules as well as a high-frequency spelling word list which learners can apply during their general writing activities. You can generate your own high-frequency words from a variety of sources, including:

- o mistakes learners commonly make
- o lists of frequently misspelled words
- o reading books
- o learner's own writing attempts
- o words from other learning areas.

Learners can also create their own personal dictionaries. Use any exercise book and let the learners label each page with a letter of the alphabet. Learners copy new and challenging words and vocabulary into these personal dictionaries and write sentences to show what they mean.

The NCS has a broad concept of what language is. There are some interesting new focus areas such as sociolinguistics, where we look at how language is used and to what purposes it is used , and multilingualism, where comparisons of structures and conventions are made across languages barriers. It also includes a Communicative Language Teaching (CLT) approach, where language is developed while learners engage in texts and activities with real purposes. With much of the grammar, spelling words and spelling rules, learning happens incidentally while learners are engaged in these activities. A central principle of the Languages Learning Area is therefore the integration of all these aspects of language through the creation and interpretation of texts, as stated in the NCS and the Milestones.

1.3.7 Writing

Learners are given a writing frame and, using a shared text as a model, do their own writing. One piece of writing is brainstormed, drafted, revised, edited and published over the course of two weeks. Learners should also be allowed to be creative and do independent writing without using a writing frame, to give them the opportunity to solve problems.

Learners in the Intermediate Phase should not be limited to the number of words they are expected to write, but should be encouraged to do more free writing. Teachers have to use their discretion in deciding on the number of words to be used for each form of assessment. In doing newspaper reports, for example, it should be noted that the number of words used must be limited to not more than 100 words, so that learners can learn to express themselves within specific parameters.

1.3.8 Foundations for Learning and Literacy Development

On the next page is a visual summary of how all the elements of Literacy Development tie up with the NCS, Learning Outcomes, the Milestones, Foundations for Learning and Scaffolding.

1.4 HOMEWORK

Children need plenty of practice in order to develop their reading skills. Some teachers like to send reading books or reading cards home with learners to reread at home. Even if there is no one literate at home an adult or older sibling can encourage the learner while he/she reads and talk to the learner about the pictures. Try to avoid sending home new reading texts. It is better for learners to have a short reading passage that they can read well and show off to their family. Learners have been known to teach their “Gogos” to read, as they become proficient readers themselves in the process! The lack of literacy at home should not stop learners doing homework – encouragement and making sure learners do their work are most important.

1.5 RESOURCES

The Government Gazette No 30880 gives a list of recommended resources for Literacy which schools should endeavour to provide. In addition to exercise books, Learner’s Books, Workbooks and basic stationery which most schools already have, the following are highlighted as being especially important for the Intermediate Phase:

- graded Grade level readers or other texts for group reading and “real” readers for pair and independent reading
- read-aloud texts
- work cards per reading book (comprehension exercises)
- bookmarks/reading record cards
- reading vocabulary list for the year
- spelling list for the year
- published dictionary

Graded Readers are used during group and guided reading. A number of publishers produce reading schemes in different languages containing sets of short readers with the reading level being graded across a grade from simple to more difficult. Each class needs approximately 10 – 12 copies of each reader so that every learner has his or her own book. Presently not every school has such sets, having only a single, longer reader for each learner which is meant to last for the year. Until the school can order new reading books the teacher can still do group reading by using the single reader, preparing and working through one chapter at a time.

Independent reading books, or ‘supplementary readers’ / “real” books, are ideal for learners to read on their own or in pairs as they have predictable text. Many publishers produce packs of small, very short readers with, for example, one copy of 10 different titles. It would be best to buy one copy of a number of different sets – making sure that the reading is at a more simple level than that in the group readers.

Finally, teachers need to have access to a lot of books to read aloud to their learners. It is very much up to the teacher to choose books that she enjoys reading and that are suitable for her learners. In addition to books at the school she could also borrow from a public library as many allow teachers or schools to borrow a number of books for several weeks at a time. She can also tell traditional stories that she knows and build up her own personal collection of children's stories.

1.6 GROUP TEACHING / GROUP WORK

Teaching and working in groups is a powerful tool to cater for learners at different levels of development. Group teaching and group work are also ideal for multi-grade and multi-phase classes.

What do we mean by Group teaching and Group work?
Are they the same thing?

Group teaching means different things to different people. It is not just rearranging the desks into groups.

You can either:

- teach the whole class the same lesson BUT differentiate the activities by:
 - giving the SAME task to every group for them to work on together or by
 - giving DIFFERENT tasks to either individuals or groups of learners; these tasks can either be at the same level or at varying levels of difficulty.

This works well for collaborative learning and where there are not huge differences between the levels of learners.

OR

- teach learners in same ability groups so that they are taught at a pace that is comfortable for them. The quicker learners can be challenged and extended and the weaker learners can benefit from more time, support and attention in a small group situation. All learners do not need to be at the same stage of learning and the activities given to the learners can be varied to meet their needs. Those with special needs can be supported in this way.

To do this you will need to divide the learners into same-ability groups for certain activities.

Group work focuses on working in small groups. You should use a variety of grouping strategies:

- whole-class work – which is usually teacher-led or -guided
- group work – with different kinds of group activities and different ways of grouping learners
- pair work
- individual work.

When doing group or pair work, learners are inclined to be noisy and excited. As long as the noise is productive and doesn't disturb others, it is fine. You will need to brainstorm some basic rules for group work with your learners, right at the beginning of the year. It is best if these rules come from your learners themselves, as they are more likely to buy into them that way. List suggestions from them on the board or on a large sheet of paper and then write this out neatly into a checklist for group work. You can display it on your wall and refer to it when you do group work. Your rules may include some of the following:

- listen to the leader.
- listen to each other.
- don't interrupt while someone else is talking.
- give everyone a chance to take part.
- follow your instructions.
- stick to the time limit.

Learners must understand that they will be assessed on their ability to work together in groups in a co-operative manner.

Each learner has a role to play in group work. These roles need to be clearly defined and learners should change roles each time they do group work. In the Intermediate Phase you need to keep these roles quite simple. For example:

a leader who:

- makes sure everyone understands the task
- makes sure everyone gets a turn to speak
- makes sure that the group doesn't become too noisy.

members who:

- give ideas
- discuss topics
- listen to each other
- help with the report back and presentation.

a monitor who:

- makes sure the group has the right books and resources
- gives out work sheets or activity sheets
- puts everything back when the group has finished.

a writer who:

- takes notes for the group
- writes things out neatly when the group has finished

While your learners are engaged with group work, you have a very important role to play. You should be moving from group to group:

- making sure that everyone understands the activity and the instructions
- observing interaction, communication and informal oral skills
- ensuring that everyone takes part, and no-one is left out

- helping, facilitating and solving problems
- keeping learners on track
- keeping order
- assessing individual and group progress
- giving feedback.

1.7 Reading for enjoyment

Everyone, including the teacher, reads a book of their own choice and records the title on a reading record card. In the last ten minutes, learners share their responses to the books with others in pairs, in groups or with the whole class.

Factors critical to nurturing a reading habit and developing reading comprehension:

- o access to books (and other interesting reading material)
- o book appeal
- o a conducive/stimulating reading environment
- o sustained reflection on what was read/viewed
- o encouragement to read by a teacher
- o an active library
- o self-directed need to read
- o teacher modelling reading behaviour and value
- o reading buddies for struggling readers.

You can supplement the texts in your classroom by starting a small library of your own. You can get learners to bring books, newspapers and magazines from home. You can also make block loans from school or community libraries. If you have funds you can buy suitable supplementary readers.

Week 1 Day 1

ORAL: LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: LISTENING AND SPEAKING

LO/ASs

LO 1: AS 1, 7

LO 2: AS 1

MILESTONES:

Oral:

- Enjoys listening to fables and stories, relating them to own experience.
- Takes part in everyday conversations with other learners.
- Expresses thoughts and feelings in an imaginative way by telling a story.

NOTES TO TEACHER:

- Choose one of your favourite stories and prepare to read it to your class.

DAILY ACTIVITIES:

Stories

- Introduce the story you prepared to the class and draw on their prior knowledge (their worlds). Show the cover/read the title and discuss what the story might be about. Read the story in a lively, interactive way but stop at one point.
- Invite learners to write one sentence about what they think happens next or how the story ends.
- Finish reading the story.
- Learners work in pairs to talk about how close their predictions were.
- End the activity by letting some learners share their opinions with the rest of the class.

ASSESSMENT: A note on the Assessment Tasks for Term 1:

The National Policy on Assessment and Qualifications for Schools in the General Education and Training Band (page 12) requires that, in the Intermediate Phase, there should be two Formal Assessment Tasks for “Language 1” per term.

You should use the following rating scale for recording and reporting which is given on the same page of the document:

RATING CODE	DESCRIPTION OF COMPETENCE	PERCENTAGES
4	Outstanding / Excellent Achievement	70 – 100
3	Satisfactory Achievement	50 – 69
2	Partial Achievement	35 – 49
1	Not Achieved	1 - 34

The Foundations for Learning Assessment Framework for the Intermediate Phase spells out the milestones to be covered for each of the two Assessment Tasks (pages 33 – 35). The main focus of the first Assessment Task in Oral is on listening to stories and fables and telling a story.

For this week, Oral, Assessment will be informal and unrecorded, unless you notice specific problems. You should focus on learners’ listening and speaking skills, taking note of learners who fail to participate in the paired discussion.

Week 1 Day 1
LITERACY FOCUS TIME
LO/ASs	LO 3 AS 1,5,7 LO 6 AS 1-3
MILESTONES: Reading: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reads South African and international fiction texts independently e.g. myths and stories. • Uses a range of reading strategies e.g. making predictions and using contextual clues to find meaning. • Identifies and comments on the central idea and the main characters of a fiction story. Spelling and grammar: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Uses phonics and spelling rules and a dictionary to spell words commonly used in personal texts • Identifies and uses parts of speech (nouns, pronouns, verbs, adverbs, adjectives, prepositions).
NOTES TO TEACHER:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Choose a fable for shared reading. It could be in a textbook or class reader or in a Big Book. Each learner should have access to the text. • Prepare for Vocabulary: select five vocabulary words from the shared text. Make a flashcard of each word. • Put up an alphabet Word Wall. A Word Wall is a large area on a wall or against the board on which to display words. Use this area for flashcards of high-frequency words, vocabulary, words that learners often spell wrongly, word families, etc. • Do an informal assessment of reading levels this week so that you can begin Guided Reading in Week 2. Use any time when the learners are meaningfully engaged in writing or reading. • Exercise books to be made into Personal Dictionaries
DAILY ACTIVITIES:
Shared reading and writing – shared reading of a new text: a fable Choose a fable for shared reading, e.g. The Hare and The Tortoise. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prepare learners for the story. Introduce the text by reading the title and looking at the cover and any illustrations. Discuss the title and illustrations. • Ask 2-3 learners to predict what they think the text will be about. • Link the text to the learner's lives. What do they know about this topic already? • Read the story aloud while the learners follow. • Model stopping at punctuation marks, using correct pronunciation and intonation. • Model how to use illustrations to make meaning by 'thinking aloud' during the reading. • Stop at one point and ask learners to predict how the story will end. • Afterwards, ask 4-5 questions to check understanding: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Who were the main characters? ○ Where was the story set? ○ What happened? (What was it about?) ○ How did the story end? Word and sentence level work – vocabulary <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Select vocabulary words from the text and write the words onto flashcards. • Discuss and clarify the meaning of each word. Have learners put the flashcards on the Word Wall.

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

- Hand out exercise books to be used as personal dictionaries.
- Learners label each page with a letter of the alphabet.
- Learners copy the vocabulary words into their personal dictionaries.
- Next to each word they write a short sentence supplied by you. (At the beginning of the term, you can give them the sentences.) Write them on the board and underline the target word.
- Reading assessment: While learners are writing, begin to call them up to your table, one at a time, and assess their reading level, as they will need to be grouped for guided reading. The purpose is to group the learners broadly into three groups: below average, average and above average readers. There are different types of levelling tests that can be used, such as the “error count test” together with a “cloze procedure test”. Today you are going to administer the error count test:
 - Error count test:
 - (1) Choose a text of approximately 100 words at the grade level.
 - (2) Call a learner to your desk and listen to him or her read.
 - (3) Count the errors and missed punctuation. Interpret the results as follows:
 - If the learner makes fewer than five errors, group him/her with above average readers.
 - If the learner makes between 5 and 10 errors, group him/her with average readers.
 - If the learner makes more than 10 errors, group him/her with below average readers.

These initial groupings will not be permanent. Groups are fluid and will change over the year or during a term.

ASSESSMENT:

The main focuses of the first Assessment Task in Reading, Spelling, Grammar and Writing are on reading myths and stories, using prediction and contextual clues, commenting on the central idea and the main characters, identifying and using various parts of speech, writing personal texts and using different tenses.

For this week, for Reading, Spelling, Grammar and Writing, Assessment will be informal and unrecorded unless you notice specific problems. You should focus on assessing learners' reading skills, noting the results.

Week 1 Day 2
LITERACY FOCUS TIME
LO/ASs	LO 3 AS 1,5,7 LO 4 AS 1, 2, 4 LO 5 AS 1, 4 LO 6 AS 1-3
MILESTONES: Reading: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reads South African and international fiction texts independently e.g. myths and stories. • Uses a range of reading strategies e.g. making predictions and using contextual clues to find meaning. • Identifies and comments on the central idea and the main characters of a fiction story. Spelling and grammar: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Uses phonics and spelling rules and a dictionary to spell words commonly used in personal texts. • Identifies and uses parts of speech (nouns, pronouns, verbs, adverbs, adjectives, prepositions). Investigation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Asks questions to obtain information, sequences the information and reports back orally. Writing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Writes for personal purposes e.g. a description of a personal experience or event using appropriate grammar, spelling and punctuation. • Writes sentences using different tenses.
NOTES TO TEACHER:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use the same text (a fable) that you used on day 1. • Select three sentences from the shared reading to use for the Grammar task on nouns and adjectives. • Prepare a writing frame chart (see below) for Writing.
DAILY ACTIVITIES:
Shared reading and writing – shared reading of a fable (continued) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Re-read the fable from the previous lesson aloud with the learners joining in. • Discuss with learners (a) if anything like that has ever happened to them and how they would feel if it did, and (b) what they learnt from the story. • Explain that a fable is a short story telling a general truth or moral and introducing people, animals or even inanimate things as speakers and actors. In the fable of the race between the tortoise and the hare, for example, the tortoise wins, even though he is slow, because he keeps going with determination. Word and sentence level work Nouns and adjectives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Write three sentences from the shared text on the board. • Explain that in a sentence, each word has a function or job to do to make the sentence work. (You are going to go through all the kinds of words in a sentence over the next weeks.) • Introduce nouns and adjectives. Generally each sentence has at least one noun in it. Nouns are words that name people, places and things. Adjectives are used to ‘describe’ nouns (or pronouns). • Ask learners to underline the nouns and adjectives in the three sentences on the board. They could use different coloured chalk for the nouns and for the adjectives. Explain how the adjectives give more meaning to the noun by describing or qualifying it. Use examples from the story.

- Write a list of ten nouns from the text on the board. Brainstorm different adjectives that could be used with the nouns. You could use a spider diagram, writing the noun in the centre and adding interesting adjectives to the legs. Also list the adjectives on the Word Wall.

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

Written task on adjectives

- Do a short written task: Rub the adjectives off the board but leave the rest of the spider diagrams visible. Learners draw their own diagrams, adding adjectives to each noun.

Reading assessment

- While the learners are busy writing, call up more learners to your table for assessment. Avoid making this into a stressful, test situation – be encouraging and supportive.

Reading for enjoyment

In addition to Reading and Writing focus time, there should be time each day or week for reading for enjoyment. During this time learners choose what they want to read and read independently. Each learner needs to record what he/she reads on a reading record card. If there are no books to read, you can read aloud to the class.

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

PRE-WRITING - A SPECIAL DAY IN THE HOLIDAYS

1. Talk about a special day in your holidays. Recount what you did.
2. Show this writing frame and read it with the learners.

WRITING FRAME: A RECOUNT	Example
Set the scene: Where, when, who?	On Christmas day I went to the beach with my family.
Say what happened: First, then, after that.	First we swam and then we had a braai. After that I played soccer with my brothers.
Say how it ended: Finally	We went home after it was dark.

3. Learners talk in pairs about a special day in their own holidays, using the frame as a guide. They can plan what they want to write, although they will only do the writing during the next lesson.

ASSESSMENT: Informal:

- Check Personal Dictionaries to see if learners are writing legibly and correctly.
- Record the results of the reading assessments.

Week 1 Day 3
LITERACY FOCUS TIME
LO/ASs	LO 3 AS 1,5,7 LO 4 AS 1, 2, 4 LO 5 AS 1, 4 LO 6 AS 1-3
MILESTONES: Reading: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reads South African and international fiction texts independently e.g. myths and stories. • Uses a range of reading strategies e.g. making predictions and using contextual clues to find meaning. • Identifies and comments on the central idea and the main characters of a fiction story. Spelling and grammar: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Uses phonics and spelling rules and a dictionary to spell words commonly used in personal texts. • Identifies and uses parts of speech (nouns, pronouns, verbs, adverbs, adjectives, prepositions). Writing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Writes for personal purposes e.g. a description of a personal experience or event using appropriate grammar, spelling and punctuation.
NOTES TO TEACHER:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continue to use the same text (a fable) that you used on day 1. • Write the spelling words you have chosen for next week on the board. • Finish assessing the learners' reading by the end of this lesson.
DAILY ACTIVITIES:
Shared reading and writing – shared reading <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Read the fable from the previous lesson together with the learners, or have some learners read 2 – 3 sentences each. • Afterwards ask: What was the central (main) idea of the fable? What was the moral lesson of the story? Allow learners to discuss this for a few minutes with a partner. Encourage them to give their answers concisely in one or two sentences. • Have 2-3 learners give feedback, summarizing the comments afterwards so the learners have a shared understanding of what the story was about. Word and sentence level work – spelling / phonics Spelling during the first term: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • During the first term, the spelling words for the week will be drawn from (1) the vocabulary and (2) high frequency / sight words in the shared text, (the lists of high frequency words in the annexure are an additional resource) together with (3) some of the words included in the revision of the phonics sounds. • Although all the phonics have been taught in the Foundation Phase, it is valuable to revise the sounds during the first term of Grade 4. Accordingly, a suggested phonics programme is included in the annexures. You should plan to cover approximately five of the vowel/ consonant diagraphs every week. • Choose one or two words using each diagraph for spelling. This will give you approximately 10 phonics words for the week. Add approximately 4 – 6 new vocabulary words and 4 - 6 high frequency / sight words from the shared text. This will make a total of about 20 words for the week. • Learners copy the list of spelling words for the week into their spelling exercise books.

- Show learners the six-step plan for learning to spell a word: look, spell out loud, look again, cover, write, check. Have them practise this with 2-3 words.
- During the week learners practise spelling the words at home and as one of the activities during the group, guided and independent reading/writing time when they can also make sentences using some of the words.
- Begin the revision of phonics by working on the following five consonant digraphs:
 - sh: eg shop, wish, cash, shoe
 - ch: eg rich, chips, chat, chin
 - th: eg this, that, then, there
 - wh: eg why, which, who, what
 - nk: eg thank, think, sink, bank
- Use the words in the shared text as a starting point, explaining to learners the letter names and the sounds each letter makes. This term they will be focusing on two or more letters together, which make a new sound eg s and h make the sound sh. Briefly sound each of the words with the learners.
- Learners copy approximately 10 of the sh/ch/th/wh/nk words into their spelling books for Week 2's spelling (during group, guided and independent reading).
- Each day for homework they will learn one group of words using the six-step plan.

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

- Learners copy the words into their Spelling exercise books. (see above)
- They can choose some of the words to make sentences.
- Reading assessment: While learners are writing, call up more learners to your table for assessment. (Try to finish this assessment by the end of this lesson.)

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

DRAFTING, EDITING – A RECOUNT

- Continuing from the previous lesson, each learner writes 4-5 sentences about a special day in their holidays in their jotters, using the writing frame as a guide.
- Write any words they need into their Personal Dictionaries (PD) and on the board.
- Explain how to revise writing by checking for sense and linking sentences together. Learners edit their sentences, correcting punctuation and spelling mistakes ensuring the sentences make sense.

ASSESSMENT: Informal:

- Check to see that learners have written the spelling words correctly in their spelling books.
- Record the results of the reading assessments.

Week 2 Day 1

ORAL: LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: LISTENING AND SPEAKING

LO/ASs

LO 1: AS 1, 7 LO 2: AS 1

MILESTONES:

Oral:

- Enjoys listening to fables and stories, relating them to own experience.
- Takes part in everyday conversations with other learners.
- Expresses thoughts and feelings in an imaginative way by telling a story.

NOTES TO TEACHER:

- Think about what group work rules you would like to reinforce.

DAILY ACTIVITIES:

Introducing group work

- Begin with a song or rhyme.
- Ask learners what they remember about the read-aloud story from last week. Briefly re-cap the story, prompting the learners to retell the main points only.
- Discuss group work with the class. Talk about the purpose of group work, (to enable all learners to have a chance to speak, to generate good ideas) the role of the group leader, (to give everyone a turn) the behaviours expected (to listen to others, not to interrupt, to be polite, not to hurt others' feelings) and the contribution each member can make (share ideas, comment on what others say). Make a mind map of ideas on the board.
- Choose a leader from each seating group. Explain that the leaders will rotate over the term and that the groups will change each term.
- Each group is to decide on a name for their group.
- Each group must talk about, and decide on, three rules for the behaviour in the group.
- The leader must write these down and hand them in.

ASSESSMENT:

Informal: unrecorded assessment of how learners take part in everyday conversations with other learners.

NOTES TO TEACHER:

- Prepare for Shared Writing (see below). Write a sample text beforehand to help you with prompt questions.
- Prepare Week 2's spelling words (new vocabulary words and high frequency words from the shared text) – for learners to add to the phonics words in the spelling book.
- Prepare for the Language activity on verbs and adverbs by selecting ten verbs and appropriate adverbs from the shared reading text.
- You should be ready to begin Guided Reading with one reading group on this day. You will need reading materials appropriate to the level of the group. While there are published graded readers available, you can use any reading material, provided it is at the learners' reading level. Alternatively you may be using a single, long reader.

DAILY ACTIVITIES:Shared reading and writing – writing a story summary

- Re-read the shared reading text, a fable, from Week 1. Revise the vocabulary words briefly.
- Introduce shared writing. Explain that you are going to write a summary of the fable you read as shared reading. Aim to use the vocabulary, high frequency words and sentence patterns from the shared reading text but plan to make it much shorter.

You could use this frame:

Story Summary Frame	Prompt questions
Setting the scene (1 – 2 sentences)	What/who is the fable about? Where is it set?
Actions (2 – 3 sentences)	What happened first? What happened next? Then what happened?
Ending (1 – 2 sentences)	How did it end?

- Shared writing procedure:

1. Ask a prompt question. Get a few responses.
2. Help learners to construct the sentences: What sentence shall I write to say that?
3. Involve learners as you write the sentences. Ask: How do I spell this word? etc.
4. Have learners give you 5 - 6 sentences altogether.

Word and sentence level work

Grammar: Verbs and Adverbs

- Use the shared writing text to introduce verbs and adverbs. A verb is a doing word (whether an action, condition or experience). Just as an adjective describes a noun, so an adverb describes or gives more information about a verb. Ask learners to help you identify the verbs and adverbs in the sentences and discuss how the adverbs affect your understanding of the sentence.
- Write a list of ten verbs from the story on the board and next to them the adverbs used. Explain that verbs can also tell you when something is happening ie in the future, now or in the past. (e.g. sing play run write cook + sang played ran wrote cooked) Help learners to sort the list into present and past tense verbs by explaining how to identify the tense.
- Rub out or cover the verbs or adverbs in the shared writing sentences to make a cloze activity. Explain to the learners that they don't have to use the exact word from the text; they can use different words provided that the meaning remains the same.

Spelling / Phonics /Sight words / Vocabulary

- Learners add high frequency / sight words and new vocabulary from the text to the list of the phonics words in their spelling exercise books to make their list of spelling words for Week 2.

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

Guided reading

- Do guided reading with Group 1.
 - Explain to the class that from now on, on most days, you are going to listen to a group read while the rest of the class complete their written activities. They should not disturb you. Early finishers should do independent reading. Any work the reading group misses will be caught up.
 - Preparation: Give the guided reading groups names, e.g. of colours, numbers, etc. The learners may choose their own names.
 - Guided reading lessons are to be about 15 – 20 minutes in duration. If you are new to the guided reading approach, it is probably best to begin with same-ability groups based on reading ability. This enables you to focus on a few strategies for a particular reading group. However, it is important to continually assess the reading progress of your groups, as some learners will be ready to move to another group sooner than others.
 - Appropriately levelled reading materials must be selected for the group and each learner should have his/her own copy of the text or graded reader.
 - Before reading: establish a purpose for reading: making predictions, introducing vocabulary (using flashcards), teaching a new reading strategy or discussing ideas that will provide the readers with the background knowledge required for the text.

- While reading: observe the learners as they read the text softly or silently to themselves or aloud (either individually or in unison). Give extra help to individuals by providing prompts, asking questions and encouraging their attempts to use different reading strategies.
- After reading: ask questions to ensure that the readers have understood the text, and praise their efforts. Reinforce appropriate reading strategies.
- Work with each reading group at least every second week, but try to work with the weaker group(s) every week.
- Assessment: after each guided reading session note down any problem areas. Do formal assessment every 2 - 4 weeks

Written tasks

- While you are listening to a reading group the other learners do a written task that they can complete without requiring your attention. They should:
 - copy the shared writing sentences into their exercise books, filling in the missing verbs / adverbs.
 - sort the list of verbs into past and present tense verbs.

ASSESSMENT: Informal:

- Learners' participation in discussions and the shared writing activity.

Week 2 Day 2

LITERACY FOCUS TIME

LO/ASs

LO 3 AS 1,5,7 LO 4 AS 1, 2, 4 LO 5 AS 1, 4 LO 6 AS 1-3

MILESTONES:

Reading:

- Reads South African and international fiction texts independently e.g. myths and stories.
- Uses a range of reading strategies e.g. making predictions and using contextual clues to find meaning.
- Identifies and comments on the central idea and the main characters of a fiction story.

Spelling and grammar:

- Uses phonics and spelling rules and a dictionary to spell words commonly used in personal texts
- Identifies and uses parts of speech (nouns, pronouns, verbs, adverbs, adjectives, prepositions).

Writing:

- Writes for personal purposes e.g. a description of a personal experience or event using appropriate grammar, spelling and punctuation.
- Writes sentences using different tenses.

NOTES TO TEACHER:

- Prepare Comprehension questions (main idea, main characters, open-ended questions etc). This could be on a new text, or the previous week's text. It depends on the length and complexity of the previous text.
- Draw the writing frame on the board or on flipchart paper in preparation for the Writing activity.

DAILY ACTIVITIES:

Shared reading and writing : shared reading of the summary of the fable

- Re-read the shared writing summary with the learners as shared reading. They can read in unison but make sure your voice is heard.
- Edit it if it has any mistakes or can be improved to demonstrate that no writing is perfect the first time.

Word and sentence level work

- Use copies of the shared reading text (or use a new fable). Set a short comprehension.
- Questions should include: identification of the central idea, identification of the main characters and 2-3 factual or open-ended questions.
- Go through the questions orally with the learners. Explain what types of answers they are expected to give ie one-word, sentences, etc. Use the results for Assessment Task 1. (As you will use this for assessment purposes the learners should do this on their own, rather than collaborating with others in the group.)

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

Written comprehension

- Let the learners do the comprehension task in their language exercise books and then practise their spellings for the week.

Guided reading

- Do guided reading with Group 2. Focus on fluency skills.

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITINGPRE-WRITING - WRITING A LIST OF ACHIEVEMENTS / GOALS FOR THE YEAR

- Talk about what the learners achieved last year. Did they pass the year? Learn new things? Do well in a sport? Become tidier? Become friendlier? Read more? Help more at home? Play better soccer? Become kinder? Get to school on time more often? etc.
- Have learners work in pairs to tell each other about some things they achieved last year.
- Now talk about what the learners want to achieve this year. Again have them talk about this in pairs.

DRAFTING

- Learners each draft two lists headed:
 - What I achieved last year and
 - What I want to achieve this year (their goals).

ASSESSMENT: Formal: Assessment Task 1:

Use the comprehension task to rate learners, recording any problems, against the following READING milestone:

- Identifies and comments on the central idea and the main characters of a fiction story.

Week 2 Day 3

LITERACY FOCUS TIME

LO/ASs

LO 3 AS 1,5,7 LO 4 AS 1, 2, 4 LO 5 AS 1, 4 LO 6 AS 1-3

MILESTONES:

Reading:

- Reads South African and international fiction texts independently e.g. myths and stories.
- Uses a range of reading strategies e.g. making predictions and using contextual clues to find meaning.
- Identifies and comments on the central idea and the main characters of a fiction story.

Spelling and grammar:

- Uses phonics and spelling rules and a dictionary to spell words commonly used in personal texts
- Identifies and uses parts of speech (nouns, verbs, pronouns, adverbs, adjectives, prepositions).

Writing:

- Writes for personal purposes e.g. a description of a personal experience or event using appropriate grammar, spelling and punctuation.
- Writes sentences using different tenses.

NOTES TO TEACHER:

- Select a new text, a story, either in a textbook, reader or a Big Book. Each learner should have access to the text.
- Select a text for group reading – it could be a story you have read as a class or a separate reader – the level of the text should be easy enough for learners to read on their own. Initially keep the time short, not more than 5 or 10 minutes.
- Prepare for learners to begin writing their own journals, either in a separate book or in the back of their Language book.

DAILY ACTIVITIES:

Shared reading and writing – shared reading

- Introduce a new shared text – a story - to the learners. Discuss the title and any illustrations and introduce new vocabulary. Encourage learners to predict what they think the story will be about from the title and the cover and ask questions that link it to their prior experience.
- Read the story to the learners, stopping once or twice to ask them to predict what might happen.
- Afterwards ask: What was the main idea? Allow learners to discuss this for a few minutes with a partner. Encourage them to give their answer concisely in one or two sentences.
- Have 2-3 learners give feedback.

Word and sentence level work – spelling

- Let the learners write a spelling test. Call out approximately 10 of the 20 spelling words for the week.

Group, guided and independent reading/writingJournal writing

- Introduce personal writing to learners. Explain that they may write as much as they like in their 'personal journal'. This will not be corrected but will be read by you every now and then. You could talk about how and why people often keep journals when they are adults; you could also speak about Anne Frank's journal.
- This week learners can begin writing about themselves. They can write their names, their birthdays and all about their families. They can work either in the back of their Language books or you could give them a separate book.

Guided reading

- While learners are writing in their journals or doing the activity they missed out earlier in the week do guided reading with Group 3. Focus on fluency skills.

Group reading

- Learners read a short simple text in their seating groups. (This could be in pairs or more). One learner volunteers to read aloud or the group/pair reads quietly in unison. You may want to set a discussion question afterwards.

Note: This group reading can take place at any time within the language lesson. It could be on another day of the week or at a different time.

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITINGREVISING AND EDITING – LIST OF ACHIEVEMENTS / GOALS

- Continue with the writing activity from previous lesson. During this lesson focus on revising the first draft of the two lists.
- Talk about past /present/future tense verbs. Learners check the verbs in their own lists.
- Learners read their sentences to their partner, checking that the sentences make sense and are in the correct tense. They make changes to the sentences, where necessary.
- Focus on punctuation and layout for a list. Learners self-edit their sentences for punctuation.
- Finally learners rewrite their lists. They could write (1) the list of their achievements last year in their exercise books (2) the list of what they want to achieve this year on paper and stick it on the back cover of their book. That way they can review their goals at the end of the year.

ASSESSMENT: Informal

- Use the learners' writing about their achievements to assess their ability to write for personal purposes.
- Read and add encouraging comments to the learners' journal entries.

Confirm the correct meanings and write the words on a flashcard, adding them to the Word Wall. Learners add them to their personal dictionaries, together with high frequency / sight words for spelling for the week.

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

Guided reading

- Do guided reading with Group 1. Focus on prediction. Before each learner reads they must predict what will happen next.

Written tasks

- Do a written task (vocabulary) with the rest of the class.
 - Learners copy the vocabulary words into their personal dictionaries on the correct letter-page. Next to each word they write a short sentence, synonym or a definition supplied by you.
 - They write their spelling words for the week into their Spelling books and write sentences with some of the words.
 - They write an entry into their journals (if time permits).

ASSESSMENT: Informal:

Written activity on characterisation

- At the same time learners continue to draw and label their pictures of one of the characters in the story.

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

PRE-WRITING - DESCRIBING A FRIEND

- Explain to learners that they are going to write about a friend/someone they know in the class.
- Begin by giving them a table to record information about themselves which their friend / partner can use. You could use the following:

Name
Age
Family members
Where you live
Appearance
What you like to do
What you like to eat
Your favourite song
Your favourite sport

- Each learner works in a friendship pair and completes the information about him/herself, recording it on a piece of paper (or a worksheet). They need only record the information in point form – not in full sentences. Correct spelling is not essential although their partner needs to be able to read and understand their writing. Collect the completed information sheets and keep them for the next lesson.

ASSESSMENT: Informal:

- Learners' ability to record personal information on a table.

Week 3 Day 3

LITERACY FOCUS TIME

LO/ASs

LO 3 AS 1,5,7 LO 4 AS 1, 2, 4 LO 5 AS 1, 4 LO 6 AS 1-3

- Uses a range of reading strategies e.g. making predictions and using contextual clues to find meaning.
- Identifies and comments on the central idea and the main characters of a fiction story.

Spelling and grammar:

Writing:

- Writes for personal purposes e.g. a description of a personal experience or event using appropriate grammar, spelling and punctuation.
- Writes sentences using different tenses.

NOTES TO TEACHER:

- Prepare/photocopy a worksheet or write the task on the board listing the characteristics of three different characters.
- Have the learners' information sheets ready for the Writing activity.

DAILY ACTIVITIES:Shared reading and writing – shared reading

- Use different learners to read the story from the previous lesson.
- Recap the names and appearance of some of the characters – revise the list of nouns and adjectives you made in the previous lesson.
- Choose three characters and identify four characteristics of each. Either write them in a list on the board or on a worksheet. The learners need to match them to the character they belong to, writing the name of the character and the descriptions for each. For example:

has brown shoes	wears a hat with a feather	has a long, red nose	has a wide smile
is short and fat	has no hair	is tall and thin	wears a pink dress
uses a walking stick	loves wearing a red coat	wears big glasses	carries a huge handbag

Word and sentence level workLanguage (tenses)

- Compare and discuss the verbs used in the story and those in the activity above. Do they use the same tense? (Often stories use the past tense - but not always.) Ask learners to talk about the characters, using the descriptions you gave them but using the past tense.

Spelling

- Do a short, informal, spelling test.

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

Guided reading

- Do guided reading with Group 3. Focus on prediction. Before each learner reads he/she must predict what will happen next.

Activity from the shared reading

- At the same time: learners do the activity from shared reading (matching the descriptions with the characters). Use this for Assessment Task 1.

Group reading

- Group reading in pairs or larger groups using graded texts. (This can be done on any day and at various times, not necessarily as a whole class activity.)

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

WRITING - DESCRIBING A FRIEND

- Return the learners' information sheets from the previous lesson.
- Learners again explain the information to their partners and their partners clarify any queries.
- During this lesson the learners write a first draft using the information sheet. Explain that they do not have to include all the information but select what they want to write about their friend. They must write in full sentences, not in point form as on the information sheet.

ASSESSMENT: Formal: Assessment Task 1:

Use the shared reading activity in which learners match the descriptions with the different characters to rate them against the following READING milestone:

DAILY ACTIVITIES:Shared reading and writing – shared writing

- Re-read the shared reading text (a story) from Week 3. Revise the vocabulary words and adjective lists.

Shared writing procedure.

- Explain that you are going to write a description of one of the characters from the story you read as shared reading. Base it on the previous week's activities and use the vocabulary lists. Make sure you use adjectives and adverbs. You could use this frame:

Character	Example
His/her/its appearance (1-2 sentences)	Granpus looked huge. He had enormous feet and hands and a bulging stomach.
How he/she/it behaves (2-3 sentences)	He walked slowly and angrily. He spoke loudly and rudely. He loved to frighten small children.
Final sentence (1 sentence)	He was a horrible giant.

- Write the sentences on a flipchart with the help of the learners.
 1. Ask prompt questions. What can we say about what the character looked like?
 2. Help learners to construct a sentence: What sentence shall I write to describe how he behaved?
 3. Involve learners as you write the sentences. Ask: What adjective can I use to describe him?
 4. Have learners give you 4 - 6 sentences altogether.

Word and sentence level work

Spelling / Phonics / Sight words / Vocabulary (verbs and adverbs)

- Phonics:

Briefly revise the following vowel diagraphs and use approximately 10 of the words as part of Week 4's spelling words:

- oi: boil, coin, soil
- oy: boy, toy
- ai: rain, pain, main, fail, wait
- ay: bay, day, way, may, pay
- oa: boat, goat, coat, road

- Vocabulary / spelling:

Learners add the new verbs and adverbs from the shared writing onto the Word Wall.

- Together with the learners, write a meaningful sentence using each word.
- Learners write the words and sentences into their personal dictionaries.
- Choose some of the new vocabulary and high frequency words to make up the week's spelling list.

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

Guided reading

- Do guided reading with Group 1. Focus on contextual clues to find meaning (are they able to use illustrations and the story so far to make sense of what they are reading?) Ask a question before and after their reading to determine this. Use for Assessment Task 1.

Written tasks

- Do written work with the rest of the class.
 - Learners copy the vocabulary words into their personal dictionaries on the correct letter-page.
 - Learners copy the 20 spelling words into their spelling books.
 - They copy the shared writing into their exercise books, underlining the verbs and adverbs.

ASSESSMENT: Formal: for Assessment Task 1

Use Guided Reading this week and next week to rate each learner against the following READING milestone:

- Uses a range of reading strategies e.g. making predictions and using contextual clues to find meaning.

Focus on prediction (can they make an informed prediction of what will happen before they begin reading their section) and the use of contextual clues to find meaning (are they able to use illustrations and the story so far to help them to decode unknown words? Ask a question before and after their reading to determine this.)

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

REVISING AND EDITING - DESCRIBING A FRIEND

- Learners complete writing a description of their friend using the Information sheet so that they have a paragraph of at least 5 sentences.
- They read their sentences to themselves first and check for spelling and grammar errors and missing words.
- Then they give the draft to their partner who checks that the sentences make sense and use the correct tense. The partners can make suggestions on what else they would like to be included. The writers make the final changes to the sentences.

ASSESSMENT: Formal: for Assessment Task 1:

Use the activity on pronouns to rate learners against the following SPELLING AND GRAMMAR milestone:

- Identifies and used parts of speech (nouns, verbs, adverbs, adjectives, prepositions).

Group reading

- Group reading during or at the end of the lesson: learners read a short, simple text in their seating groups.

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

PUBLISHING - DESCRIBING A FRIEND

- Each learner writes a neat, correct copy of his/her paragraph on an A4 sheet of paper.
- Remind them always to use the correct tense – if he/she is writing about his/her friend when he/she was younger, he/she will need to use the past tense. However if he/she is describing him/her now he/she must use the present tense. If he/she writes about his/her plans for the future he/she must use the future tense.
- Finally learners can add a picture of their friend – or the learners can draw their own pictures
- The learner reads it to others in the group who can make comments.
- Display the writing on a wall of the classroom or make it into a book for the classroom.

ASSESSMENT: Formal: Assessment Task 1

Use the writing activity (Describing a friend) to rate learners, recording any problems, against these WRITING milestones:

- Writes for personal purposes e.g. a description of a personal experience or event using appropriate grammar, spelling and punctuation.
- Writes sentences using different tenses.

Use Guided Reading this week and next week to rate each learner against the following READING milestone:

- Learners will work in pairs to choose a story they have heard this term and re-tell it to their partner in an interesting way, to keep their attention.
- Stop the learners after five minutes and say that the other learner must have a turn.
- Have learners each fill in a peer assessment form. They write yes or no.
- Observe the pairs as they work.
- Collect the peer assessment forms.

Peer Assessment Form:

 - Learners re-write the sentences and add suitable prepositions. Assessment Task 1.

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

PRE-WRITING: AN INVESTIGATION

- Talk about the learners' early lives. Together with learners formulate a series of questions they could ask to find information about their early years. Ask: What questions could you ask to find out what you were like when you were a baby/very young?
- Write a list of questions on the board as they are given to you, e.g.
 - Where was I born?
 - What did I look like when I was born?
 - Where did I live first?
 - What did I like to eat first, next etc?
 - Did I cry a lot as a baby?
 - When did I learn to walk/talk?
 - Was I naughty?
- Have learners work in pairs to say which five questions they would like to ask about themselves, and who they will ask to find the answers. Keep notes for Assessment Task 1
- Learners write down their five questions on paper. They can fold the paper and write each question on the left side of the page so they can make notes of the answers on the right side.
- Explain to the learners that they must take the list of questions home and find out the answers by the next lesson.

ASSESSMENT: Formal: Assessment Task 1

Use the cloze activity on prepositions to rate learners against the following SPELLING AND GRAMMAR milestone:

- Identifies and uses parts of speech (nouns, pronouns, verbs, adverbs, adjectives, prepositions).

Use the Investigation during writing time to rate each learner during the next two weeks against the following INVESTIGATION milestone:

DAILY ACTIVITIES:Shared reading and writing – shared reading and writing.

- Read the story from the previous lessons together with the learners.
- Re-cap the story, using the diagram you made during the last lesson. Revise vocabulary words.
- Use the information in the diagram to make a summary of the story using shared writing.
- You could use this frame:

Story Summary Frame	Prompt questions
Setting the scene (2 – 3 sentences)	What was the story about? Where was it set? Who were the main characters?
Actions (3 – 4 sentences)	What happened first? What happened next? Then what happened?
Ending (1 – 2 sentences)	How did it end?

Word and sentence level work - spelling

- Do a spelling test with learners. Use for Assessment Task 1.

NB: Use also the spelling in learners' other written work as part of this assessment. There is little point in learners spelling a word correctly in a spelling test and misspelling it for the rest of the week.

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

Guided reading

- Do guided reading with Group 3. Complete the assessment of each learner during guided reading.

Journal writing

- Other learners write an entry in their personal journals, recounting a recent event in their lives.

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

WRITING: AN INVESTIGATION

- Learners bring the results of their investigation back to class.
- They record the answers to their questions in a logical sequence in their books. They should write in full sentences, using their personal dictionaries as well as published dictionaries if necessary for help with spelling. Keep notes for Assessment Task 1.
- Explain to the learners that, in the next lesson, they will be asked to share what they have learned with a group of other learners.

ASSESSMENT: Formal: Assessment Task 1:

Use guided reading this week to rate each learner against the following READING milestone:

- Uses a range of reading strategies e.g. making predictions and using contextual clues to find meaning.

Use the two writing activities (writing questions / recording the responses) to rate learners against this INVESTIGATION milestone:

- Asks questions to obtain information, sequences the information and reports back orally.

 - ir: fir, sir, firm, stir, shirt, dirt, bird
 - or: for, form, port, corn, horn,
 - ur: burn, hurt, curl
 - er: her, herd, term
- Select vocabulary words from the text and add more high frequency / sight words to make up the list of spelling words for the week.
- Show the vocabulary words on flashcards, discussing and clarifying their meaning. You can always introduce other related words, even if they are not in the text itself. For example, this week you could add words like cartoon, speech bubbles, pictures, design, frame, etc. For the rest of the term learners will be focusing on visual texts so it is worthwhile them becoming familiar with these words.
- Have learners put the flashcards on the Word Wall.

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

Guided reading

- Do guided reading with Group 1.

Written task

- Do a written task (vocabulary/ spelling) with the rest of the class.
 - Learners copy the vocabulary words into their PD's on the correct letter-page. Next to each word they write a phrase or short sentence supplied by you.
 - They write their spelling words for the week in their spelling book and write sentences with a few of the words.

ASSESSMENT: Informal:

Assess learners' reading levels.

By now you will know which learners are having problems with reading. During this week, take particular note of these learners and record exactly what their problems are eg Do they have problems in sounding out the words? Do they read saw as was – indicating that they may have reversal problems? Do they lose their place and seem to battle to see the words – possibly indicating a visual problem? Might there be a hearing problem? Should you consider moving them to a reading group that is reading more slowly? Is there a sudden drop in achievement – possibly indicating another problem, either at home or at school?

Discuss the use of colour, the design, the choice of images etc in making the story more alive and exciting. • Ask them which frame they liked best and why. Word and sentence level work Punctuation and tenses <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learners work as a group to go through the cartoon text and identify all the punctuation used. • Ask each group to give you one response and where they found it. They use direct speech but, unlike in a book, there are no quotation marks used. (They will have seen such marks during their reading).

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

Guided reading

- Do guided reading with Group 2.

Written task based on punctuation

- Do a language task: Write 4 – 6 sentences on the board, based on the shared reading story. Ensure it involves adding capital letters, full stops, commas, question marks and exclamation marks.
- Learners rewrite the sentences, adding the correct punctuation.

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

PRE-WRITING: A SHORT CARTOON STORY (A DIALOGUE)

- Learners work in pairs to write a short cartoon story using speech bubbles and stick figures. They need to decide on:
 - The characters (not more than 4)
 - The story
 - The events in the story
 - What will go in each frame.
- They could use this writing frame:

1. the characters	<ul style="list-style-type: none">••••
2. the story line (what the story is about)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•
3. the main events of the story	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1.2.3.4.
4. what will go into each frame	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1.2.3.4.5.6.

They can start writing in the frame but they will only complete the task during the next lesson.

Group reading

- Group reading: Learners read a short, simple text in their seating groups. (This could be in pairs or more.) NB: This group reading in pairs can take place on all three days of the week with different learners, especially on the days when it is not the turn of their group to read to you. Ideally learners should also be reading independently every day for a short time. Get learners into the routine of reading either individually or in pairs once they have finished their written tasks for the lesson.

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

DRAFTING A SHORT CARTOON STORY (A DIALOGUE)

- Continue with writing activity from previous lesson. Learners finish their planning of the writing.
- Give each pair an A4 sheet of paper. They fold it into 8 rectangles.
- In each rectangle they draw one step of their story using stick figures and writing the dialogue in the speech bubbles. By the end of this lesson they should have a draft of their cartoon story.

NB: Learners might want to add a sentence below each cartoon frame, as well as writing the dialogue in the speech bubbles. Some cartoons do this.

- Collect their work and keep for the next lesson.

ASSESSMENT: Informal assessment

Week 7 Day 1

ORAL: LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: LISTENING AND SPEAKING

LO/ASs

LO 1: AS 1, 7, 8

LO 2: AS 1, 2

MILESTONES:

Oral:

- Enjoys listening to fables and stories, relating them to own experience.
- Participates in discussions on familiar topics, taking turns to share ideas and offer opinions from personal experience and showing respect for others.
- Listens to and gives directions and instructions.

NOTES TO TEACHER:

- Instructions for a board drawing, two sets of instructions for pair work and instructions for individual drawings.

DAILY ACTIVITIES:

Following instructions

- Introduce and read a set of instructions for a mystery drawing. Read out the instructions and then choose 2-3 learners to draw the object simultaneously on the board. e.g. Draw a rectangle and triangle on top of the rectangle. Draw a rounded door and two windows in the rectangle. What do you have? (A traditional dwelling).
- Compare the drawings. Discuss how differently people interpret instructions.
- Select 2-3 learners and give action instructions for them to follow, e.g. Go outside, pick a piece of grass, come back and put it into the dustbin. Again see who followed them most accurately.
- Pair work: photocopy and give half the class one set of instructions and the other half another set. One learner reads out the instructions (only once!). After they have read them, their partner does the actions. E.g. Tap your right knee with your left hand, scratch your nose with one finger of your right hand and close your eyes.
- Discuss whether partners were able to do the task, especially when they only heard it once. Emphasize the importance of listening carefully (at all times!).
- Individual work: give each learner a sheet of paper. Ask them to follow your instructions to draw or make something. Read each sentence once only and give them time to draw before you start the next sentence. e.g. Draw a tree with wide branches in the middle of the page. Add two birds sitting on a nest in the tree. Above the tree draw an aeroplane flying from left to right. Below and to the left of the tree draw a man sitting on a chair. To his left draw a table with three legs. To the left of the table draw a woman. To the right of the tree draw a car with no wheels. Use for Assessment Task 2.

ASSESSMENT: Formal: Assessment Task 2

Use the drawings from the second and last activities (in pairs / as individuals), to assess if learners have achieved this ORAL milestone:

- Listens to and gives directions and instructions.

 - Learners copy the vocabulary words into their PD's on the correct letter-page, together with the shared writing sentences.
 - They copy the 20 spelling words into their spelling books, together with two of the shared writing sentences.

NB: Explain to learners that from this week you will also be testing them on these sentences.
- Learners who have completed their tasks in time do either individual or paired reading.

ASSESSMENT: Formal: Assessment Task 2

Use the Guided reading time this week to rate learners against the following READING milestones:

- Reads South African and international non-fiction texts independently e.g. textbooks.
- Uses a range of reading strategies e.g. using contextual clues to find meaning.

NOTE: The main focuses for the second Assessment Task are on the reading of non-fiction texts, the use of graphical techniques in visual texts and the writing and designing of visual and information texts.

PUBLISHING A CARTOON STORY (A DIALOGUE)

- Return the completed cartoon stories to the learners, together with blank A4 sheets of paper attached with paper fasteners.
- Explain that during this lesson other learners are going to have the chance to read, and comment, on their cartoon story.
- Organise this by firstly exchanging the stories with other learners seated at the table opposite or nearby. They read it and make a comment, adding their names.
- They can then exchange it with other learners, who also read it and write a comment, and so on.
- Once a number of learners have had the chance to read and make comments, the stories and the comments are returned to the original writers who can see what others thought about what they have written.
- You can display the stories around the classroom for others to read later.

Oral:

- Enjoys listening to fables and stories, relating them to own experience.
- Participates in discussions on familiar topics, taking turns to share ideas and offers opinions from personal experience and showing respect for others.
- Listens to and gives directions and instructions.

NOTES TO TEACHER:

 - Was it right / fair for a sly but clever animal to win by playing a trick like that in the story?
 - Do they know any similar stories? If so, they should share one with their group.
 - Do they like stories like this? Why?
- Ask one person from each group to tell the rest of the class what the group felt.

ASSESSMENT: Formal: Assessment Task 2:

Use the story telling and the group discussions to rate learners against the following

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Select an information poster or brochure with text suitable for Grade 4 learners. • Prepare for vocabulary as before. • Prepare for spelling. • Use guided readers for guided reading. • Provide readers for individual, paired and group reading
DAILY ACTIVITIES:
Shared reading and writing – introducing a new text (an information poster or brochure) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Display the new poster. As you did the previous week ask learners what immediately strikes them when they look at it eg large writing, a lot of colour, appealing appearance (makes you want to look at it and read it). • Read the text together with learners from top to bottom. Write new vocabulary words. As this is a non-fiction poster there is likely to be a lot of new vocabulary so you will need to be selective. • Ask learners to tell you the message of the poster ie the central idea. It might be to give information on health or safety issues or provide community or municipal news or information. • Link the text to the learners' lives. Have they seen this type of poster before? If so, where? Word and sentence level work Spelling / Phonics / Sight words / Vocabulary <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Phonics: briefly revise the following consonant digraphs (at the beginning and end of words) and use approximately 10 of the words as part of Week 8's spelling words: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • -r: cross, dress, from, grab, pram, trip • -l: club, flag, glad, plum, slip • s-: still, skin, spot, scum • -nd, -nk, -ft, -lt, -ld : spend, wind, bank, soft, felt, gold • -tch: catch, match, fetch

- Select vocabulary words from the text and write the words onto flashcards. Discuss and clarify meanings and write sentences with the words, as shared writing.
- Have learners put the flashcards on the Word Wall under the correct letters.
- Choose some of the new vocabulary and sight words to make up this week's spelling list.

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

Guided reading

- Do guided reading with Group 1. Use guided readers, focusing on fluency as well as comprehension.

Written task

- Do a written task (vocabulary) with the rest of the class.
 - Learners copy the vocabulary words into their PD's on the correct letter-page, together with the shared writing sentences.
 - They copy the 20 spelling words into their spelling books, together with two of the shared writing sentences.
- Learners who have completed their tasks in time do either individual or paired reading.

ASSESSMENT: Informal:

Note learners' understanding of graphical techniques such as colour, use of pictures, the way the information is displayed on the poster + the choice of vocabulary and use of different fonts.

Ask learners to comment on the pictures (graphics) and how they help to explain the information. What would the poster be like if it had no pictures or diagrams? Would they look at it or read it if it were just written text? Word and sentence level work Grammar: more conjunctions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduce more conjunctions, reminding learners of their purpose. • Find and discuss conjunctions used in the poster and list them on the board. These will probably include the following: and, but, because, although, when, so, therefore • Write three pairs of sentences onto the board. Learners choose one of the conjunctions to join the sentences. Discuss why some of the other conjunctions would not be appropriate for these sentences, although more than one conjunction might well be suitable. • Talk about the need to change some of the nouns into pronouns when you join two sentences together. Show how the punctuation changes. Work through all three pairs of sentences so that learners understand which conjunctions to use and when to change nouns to pronouns. • Explain the task that learners will do during guided reading (a cloze procedure in which learners have to choose the correct conjunctions in a paragraph).

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

Guided reading

- Do guided reading with Group 2. Use guided readers, focusing on fluency as well as comprehension.

Written task based on conjunctions

- Do a written task: Learners complete a cloze procedure in which learners have to choose the correct conjunctions in a paragraph. Use for Assessment Task 2.

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

WRITING: DRAFTING – A ROAD SAFETY POSTER

- Tell learners they are going to design an information poster for other learners in the school. The topic will be Road Safety.
 - First they must think of the main idea of the poster and then the details.
 - Ask learners to brainstorm in pairs:
 - What will the main idea of your poster be?
 - What other information do you think the children need to know about this topic?
- Give the pairs of learners an A4 sheet of paper to start putting down some ideas.
- Collect the results of the initial brainstorm and keep for the next lesson.

ASSESSMENT: Formal: Assessment Task 2:

Use the task on conjunctions to rate learners, recording any problems, against the following SPELLING AND GRAMMAR milestone:

- Uses conjunctions to form compound sentences.

Use a worksheet or an exercise from a Learner’s Book to assess their knowledge of parts of speech. You could give them sentences for them to underline different parts of speech or ask them to write, for example, two nouns from a short paragraph. Use this for Assessment task 2. Spelling <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Spelling test: call out a few of the spellings for the week and one of the sentences.

Group, guided and independent reading/writing

Guided reading

- Do guided reading with Group 3. Use guided readers, focusing on fluency as well as comprehension.

Journal writing

 - Learners write 2 – 3 sentences of personal news in their journals.

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

WRITING - PUBLISHING A POSTER

- Give learners back their notes from the initial brainstorming session.
- Re-cap the visual design in posters:
 - What kind of information can be conveyed as pictures? (eg Ideas are hard to show as pictures)
 - Why are pictures used for posters (eg to convey information without the need for a lot of text)
 - How should pictures/diagrams be placed? (In a way that is easy to see, not crowded)
 - How is attention drawn to the illustrations and the text? (eg using borders, colour, humour)
- Talk about the use of written text in posters:
 - Phrases and words are often used instead of sentences.
 - Text is short and easy to read.
 - Headings are used to attract attention.
 - Large fonts are used that can be read from afar.
- Learners create a draft poster with information in words/phrases or as illustrations. They show their draft posters to their group for other learners to make suggestions.
- Learners adjust their posters and construct a final version on A3 paper.
- These can be displayed around the school.

ASSESSMENT: Formal: Assessment Task 2:

Oral:

- Enjoys listening to fables and stories, relating them to own experience.
- Participates in discussions on familiar topics, taking turns to share ideas and offers opinions from personal experience and showing respect for others.
- Listens to and gives directions and instructions.

NOTES TO TEACHER:

- Learners enjoy following instructions to make things out of paper – in this case they make a tiny book which they use for making notes. But make it yourself first.

DAILY ACTIVITIES:

Following instructions – making a tiny book

- Give each learner an A4 sheet of paper and tell them to follow these instructions:
- Fold the paper in half and then fold in half again. Open it up.
- Fold the paper lengthways and open it up. (Learners will have eight boxes.)

- Fold the paper in half over the original fold. Cut a slit from the middle to the first fold only.

- Open up the sheet and fold along the long fold.

- Now begin to push both ends towards the middle. The centre part will open like a diamond shape.
- Keep pushing into the centre until point A meets point B. Turn the sides in the same direction to complete the tiny book.

ASSESSMENT: Informal

Observe which learners are able / not able to follow the oral instructions accurately.

Explain this to them during this lesson, asking them to bring a photograph from home suitable to write about. Alternatively they could choose a picture that they like from a magazine. Bring one of your own to start the discussion.
DAILY ACTIVITIES:
Shared reading and writing – an information text with a picture <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Begin by orientating learners to the Learner's Book by reminding them what it is about and looking at the Contents page. Tell them that they are going to be looking at a picture in a particular chapter eg chapter 5. Have them tell you the topic of that chapter. • Tell learners to turn to the particular page you have chosen. (It should be one that they haven't yet read.) • Explain to learners how to scan the page by letting their eyes look quickly over the page without reading the actual text. That will show them that there is a picture on the page, paragraphs of writing and, possibly, headings or sub-headings. • Focus on the picture itself and read and talk about the caption. What does it tell you about the picture? What do learners know about that topic so far? • Now let learners look at the picture and discuss it in pairs. • As a class discuss what the central (main) idea of the picture is. • List new vocabulary from the discussion on the board eg Contents page, picture, background, caption etc

Spelling / Phonics / Sight words / Vocabulary

- Phonics: briefly revise the following prefixes and suffixes and use approximately 10 of the words as part of Week 9's spelling words:
 - -ly: lovely, sadly, slowly, softly
 - -ing: sitting, running, thinking, doing, making
 - -ed: fixed, looked, played
 - -ness : goodness, fitness, sadness
 - un-: unhappy, unloved

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

PRE-WRITING – A PERSONAL TEXT DESCRIBING A PICTURE

- Show learners a picture that is special to you and talk briefly to them about it eg when it was taken and why; who is in the photograph; why is it special; what were you doing.
- Explain to learners that they are going to write a paragraph about the photograph they brought from home. Make sure every learner has either a photograph or a picture (if necessary they can select one they like from a magazine but it would be better if it was one that was meaningful to them.)
- You could use the following writing frame:

When and where was the picture taken?	This is me on my wedding day, four years ago.
Who is in the picture?	You can see me in the middle, with my husband and my mother and sister.
Why was it special? What were you doing?	The school choir sang for me.

- Learners work in pairs to talk about their photograph and what they want to write. Each learner should answer the questions orally.
NB: Remind learners to bring the photograph to the next lesson OR you could keep the photographs safely in a cupboard.

ASSESSMENT: Informal:

- Assess learners' participation in the class discussion during shared reading and the discussion in pairs about their photograph.
- Read learners' personal journals and make comments.

DAILY ACTIVITIES:
Shared reading and writing – an information text with a picture <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continue the discussion based on the picture and the information text. - Do a Word Search with the other learners, using a mixture of recently taught vocabulary and sight words. You could use one from a Learner’s Book or make your own:
 - Rule a matrix of squares, approximately 8 rows wide and 7 rows down.
 - Write the words in the blocks and fill in the other blocks with random letters. If this is the first time learners have done a Word Search it is best to write the words horizontally; later they can also be written vertically and even diagonally.
 - Photocopy for each learner.
 - Learners must find the words, circle them and then write them below. They should choose two words to write meaningful sentences.

a	b	e	f	o	r	e	g	m	u

- Continue to do group reading using graded readers or let learners re-read other fiction or non-fiction texts.

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: WRITING

WRITING – A PERSONAL TEXT DESCRIBING A PICTURE

- Learners use the writing frame to write a draft of their paragraph.
- When it is written they read it to a partner and check for spelling, grammar errors and that it makes sense.
